The Cemetery Club

The Cemetery Club tells the story of three Jewish widows who accompany one another once a month to a local cemetery in Forest Hills, Queens, where their husbands are buried. When the ladies run into Sam, a local butcher visiting his wife's grave at the same cemetery, a romance seems to be in the making as Ida and Sam fall for each other. Ida's two friends and fellow "club members" don't support Ida's romance with Sam, complicating things a bit! This is a play about love, loss and renewal. The Cemetery Club is both funny and moving, encouraging us to dwell in possibilities. It shows us how friendship helps us to move forward and explore all that life can offer - at any age!
